

SEEN, HEARD
AND TOLD
By W. W. WHITAKER
When he feels like it.

Our harvest of candidates is getting a little bigger this week. Two new candidates for supervisor, Noel Staten of Oxberry and David Haile of Gore Springs; then Harold Carpenter, who came to Route One from Little Texas, wanting to be Tax Assessor. Later in the week, Albert Clark, whom we call the Past Master, running for re-election from Beat Three. Then came Bro. A. J. Hammonds, who is a keen, nice-looking young teacher of Grenada running for Supt. of Education. Tom King came in Wednesday afternoon and announced for Sheriff, opening up that office in the rat race; Bill Lott announced for J. P., Beat One. Unless these avid candidates check up a little in the future, we may have to get out 16 pages just for candidates and the announcement column.

However, boys, don't be discouraged; if necessary we will get out sixteen pages to hold the candidates.

Over in Calhoun City Sunday, where we went to pick up Whyte Jr.'s shotgun at Cleve Eads' fixing plant, we dropped in to see Frankie Hitt, our favorite blonde, and her folks running a cafe on a busy corner.

I think I will get Byron Hunter to fix me a copy of my army discharge on that contraption he has over there.

Do you see that long list of names published elsewhere in this issue. If your name is there, you may be able to pick up a small check. Read it carefully.

That was Herbert Wyatt's 51 Highway place shown in the picture last week. It was another view of the same farm scene we showed on July 29th issue.

I had a fine article already written about Albert Clark, but, as he brought his own write-up into the office, I let his go, but I wanted to tell a lot of things I know about him and his fine beat. Maybe, Albert was scared of me and my writings. Anyway, Mabel got the money and I can save the write-up I had for some other deserving candidate.

Welcome to new subscribers, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark of Route 1.

Milton Rose of Holcomb not only paid his own dues, but had us add the name of his boy Robert E. Rose, now at Lincoln (Neb.) Air Force. Be careful of those wild wimmen, Robert for some of them, they say, are pizen.

The name, James E. Shaw, lives on at a neat little store and service station, just beyond Gore Springs. It is owned by one of old man Jim's grandsons.

They are entitled to them, and can get them anytime they say so, but I don't think Jim Elliott in Beat 5 or Albert Clark in Beat Three have any need for candidate cards.

Tom King who was chief deputy for Sheriff Rogers Parker four years ago, and who made a fine race for sheriff in 1951, is the first in a long list of folks who want to be Sheriff next term. Frank Morrison, another contender in 1951, is just on the eve of announcing and has already ordered his candidate cards.

We have a lot of cards ready for you candidates and the rest of the cards will be ready Friday or Saturday.

Is YOUR name in that long list published about half way, this week? If so, you are likely to have a small check at the CoOp. After you finish reading the candidate announcements, read that list of names.

All of his host of friends here are mighty happy to learn that Mayor (Dr.) Clanton, while pretty sick for a while, is now reported better.

Game Warden O. L. McClain was on the job when something got the matter with shad (fish) in Old River because he got a representative of the fish commission on the ball right away who told what the matter was. He said that the shad were dying because of a change of oxygen in the water and that the other fish were not affected.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sharp and Mrs. Mary Ida Parks attended as guests of Miss Donna Jean Sharp, the Kappa Kappa Gamma dance at Ole Miss Friday night. This was their annual sorority dance and one of the outstanding social events of late winter on the campus.

Mrs. Buskirk Dies Here Last Wednesday

Mrs. Aggie Buskirk, beloved mother of Mrs. Will H. Crowder, died in her sleep at the Crowder residence on 4th Street, during the early morning hours of Wednesday, February 16, 1955. She had resided here eight years.

The deceased was a native of Conneaut, Ohio, and had lived at Pine Bluff, Ark. for fifty years. Her husband died many years ago. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

In the absence of Rev. Sutphin, Rev. W. T. Clarke, Presbyterian minister, officiated at the services here. After services at Garner Brothers Funeral home Thursday, her body was taken to Pine Bluff, Ark. for interment, on Friday, in Bellwood Cemetery.

Red Cross Drive To Open March 1st

As in all drives, the chairman urges every citizen to cooperate. The success of the drive is not his responsibility alone. Everyone must help.

Religious Census To Be Completed This Week

A complete religious census of Grenada and surrounding areas is being completed this week in preparation for the March 27-April 10 Simultaneous Revivals in Grenada County Baptist Churches.

With at least eleven Baptist Churches with a total membership of over 2500 engaged in this special evangelistic effort, perhaps no previous program among churches in Grenada County has ever had such an emphasis.

Pastors will hold their regular meeting next Tuesday morning at 6:30 to formulate final plans which will reach throughout the county, as a part of a nationwide effort among Baptists.

All Christians are urged to begin praying now for a real revival.

Farm ponds have recently been completed on the farms of F. E. Gillon of Gore Springs, and V. E. Miles of Grenada. Farmers who constructed farm ponds during 1954 with ACP assistance are requested to vegetate the dams and spillways of the ponds as soon as possible so that final certification may be made.

Farmers desiring to construct ditches, terraces, diversions, water ways or ponds on their farms are urged to file their request so that surveys and layouts may be completed.

Agriculture Meeting Well Attended At Holcomb

Approximately 100 persons, including farmers from the Holcomb community and Grenada businessmen, heard County Agent C. O. Sennett discuss soil tests and the use of fertilizer on Grenada County soil at a Chamber of Commerce sponsored community development meeting Tuesday night at the Holcomb High School. The program was the second of a series of meetings to be held by the Agriculture Committee of the Grenada County Chamber of Commerce in various communities of the county.

At the conclusion of the program a 25-question quiz on Mr. Sennett's lecture was given, with Mrs. Clarence Head, Pete Lott and William Holcomb winning the prizes donated by the C. of C. ## Other Candidates Enter Rat Race

David Haile Announces For Supervisor - Beat Two

David Haile, a resident of Beat Two, announced officially today that he is running for supervisor of that beat, Beat Two.

David is no stranger to the folks there as he was born there, went to school there, married there and has lived among them all his life, as his people have done ever since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary.

To attempt to tell the folks there about David Haile, especially by one who really knows less about him than do the folks who live there, is pretty much of an idle gesture.

Anyway, David is a nice clean-looking young man and we turn his ambitions over to the people who have to weigh the relative merits of those seeking this post and this we do with the invocation of blessings by them on this young fellow who is now making this, his second try at the capture of this office.

Noel Staten Seeks Election As Supervisor - Beat Five

Sincerely yours,

Town Talk
BY
FED ROBINSON

Former President Herbert Hoover (and he was not in the least little bit responsible for the depression of 1932 but is one of the greatest Americans this country has produced - and we are mindful of a dude named Franklin Roosevelt as we write this) has long made his influence a power for good in helping under-privileged boys, through his work in behalf of the Boy's Club of America. Mr. Hoover gave the whole nation what he calls the "Bill of Rights for Boys" and here they are:

1. Like everybody else, a boy has a right to the pursuit of happiness.
  2. He has a right to play so that he may stretch the imagination and prove his prowess and skill.
  3. He has a right to constructive joys of adventure, and the thrills that are a part of an open life.
  4. He has a right to affection and friendship.
  5. He has a right to the sense of security in belonging to some group.
  6. He has a right to health protections that will make him an inch taller than his dad.
  7. He has a right to the education and training that will amplify his own natural bent.
  8. He has a right to accept the obligations of citizenship in democracy - perhaps the greatest right a boy or anyone else, can have.
- So... if there's a boy around your house call him in and slap him on the shoulder and say "Sonny, we at this house are proud of our son, and beginning now we are going to think of you as a very important member of this family because in a few years you will be a very important member of this community and we will want to feel proud of the contribution you are going to make."

A man in Hot Springs gave the judge the excuse for being drunk that he had forgotten to read the directions on the bottle. Well, that's a new one, but come to think of it there are any directions for how much printed on a whiskey bottle? You see, the makers make the stuff but find it unnecessary to print a label stating when to drink it or when not to. They know the drinker is going to drink all of it before he stops anyway. Have often wondered why the food and drug law didn't require the skull and cross-bones printed in red on every whiskey label.

Heard a new story on George Washington the other day. It is said George was born in Texas, but his father wanted his son to be truthful and honest so they moved to Virginia.

They explain up here in Arkansas how one may tell if a Texan is lying about something. Here is the procedure: Walk up behind the Texan and study his features. How does his neck fit into his shoulders, then look at the side of his face to see if his ears are on a level with his nose then look at him from the front. Is his eyes wide apart and is his nose straight and does his chin jut out a little. Now look at his lips... and if his lips are moving the Texan is lying!

I wonder if Miss Lucille Hibbler... former civilian employee of the Air Force in the Evans Building in Grenada ever reads this paper? About 3 years ago Miss Hibbler said if I should ever meet Mrs. Doctor Clyde Hart of Pine Bluff, I was to tell her that Miss Hibbler sends her regards and to remind her they were school chums once upon a time in Mississippi. Well after three years I was introduced to Mrs. Hart the other day and wanted to tell her about her friend in Mississippi but fumbled and stumbled around for 5 minutes but couldn't remember Hibbler's name. Thought of it suddenly later but too late. Isn't that embarrassing? So sorry Lucille, I'll try again next opportunity.

When we talk about a difficult problem, all we are saying is we just don't know how to solve it and this we can learn to do if we will develop a keener sense of values because there's hardly ever any problem but one giving a choice or two and all we must do is the right choice, and go ahead and live with it.

Brother Summerville accosted me Saturday and paid his dues, which we immediately put on the book

fee to run for supervisor in Beat Two, also took out a subscription so he could keep up with the politics, just fixing to boil, and Mrs. Chilton's fine items

John Pressgrove, who knows a lot about the ins and outs of Grenada politics, was up to the office recently, but he was sort of mum about politics, the current subject. He did say that his little girl, Joan, was fixing to be graduated at the Natchez HI School

I don't think that George Garner liked that piece I had about him looking at W. E. Jackson with an appraising eye, but, he said, he was scared to say anything because I might put THAT in the paper too. George is all right and I like him. He has always been mighty nice putting all my folks away in the past and, probably, will do the same for me some day.

We got Moss Brothers to do something for us that we should have done in 1937 - that is, put a concrete foundation under our newspaper press. The Mosses and the Biddies did a good job, as we knew in advance they would do and our press has quit walking all over the floor

Recently we had John Hamby's out fit fix our roof that had needed fixing for about 20 years and it looks like they did a good job, as we expected them to do.

Somebody from Beat Five told me that Vernon Carver, the old horse trader, was showing signs. When the news got out that supervisors now get $233.33 a month, there was raised ambition in many a patriot's breast

They say that Bill Moser is showing signs

I can whisper in the readers' ears that my prognostication about Jim Nail's keeping his ears attuned to the public pulse were partially accurate. I knew he had the fever several years ago and the only way to cure the fever is to get the cure at the ballot boxes in August.

Somebody said that Griffis Meek had his finger nails bitten down to the quick as he monkeyed around the delivery room in the Methodist Hospital in Memphis eagerly awaiting the coming of his heir. The heir, Edna Boushe Meek, born last week. Grand-mary Mary Meek and Grandpaw Tom Meek went up to see the heir Saturday.

On our agenda for our new Ford is a trip to Baton Rouge real soon, to see Caroline and some of our little heirs.

They beat Tommie Rose Jr. in 1951 for assessor, but Tommie then said he was going to continue to run and run and run until he was elected to some office. What it is I just don't know.

March 1, the "day of days" for many of our rural people, will soon be here. That day is "draw day," the day when landowners begin shelling out money in huge gobs.

Grady Carroll, who is running for Circuit Clerk, also paid in enough to get the GCW a year. From the way folks are running for that office, Charlie Worsham must have a gold mine there.

Mrs. Freddie Little of Oxberry not only paid up her own dues, but also took out a subscription for her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Hancock of Myrtle, Miss. Welcome, Sister Hancock.

Our old friend, Dr. Hightower of Itta Bena, sent in his annual contribution one day last week. It seems that the good doctor has his own clinic in that progressive little city.

Among the rural folks who are showing distinct signs is Brother Dour Anderson of Beat Three whose mouth waters for that $233.33 that the erudite Albert Clark totes off every month Doug has already spoken for a place in the rat race.

Noel Staten, one of old man Theda's boys, has been working on the road for many years at so much a day, now wants to get into the real money, paid his stud fee and now will help enliven the rat race in Beat 5.

HIGHWAY CONFERENCE ANNOUNCED FEB. 24-25

UNIVERSITY, MISS. - Is the toll road the way out for today's program of highway construction? Can prefabricated concrete cut highway costs below present levels? How far should highways be tilted at sharp curves? Ways to construction of tomorrow's highways and answers to some of these questions that will have to be answered along the way are on the agenda for the Mississippi Highway Conference February 24-25. The Conference is being held at the University of Mississippi Department, the Mississippi Association of Supervisors, and the Mississippi Economic Council.

Highlighting the two-day Conference is an address by the world-known civil engineer Dr. Karl Terzaghi, Harvard Professor and engineering consultant on a long list of projects throughout the world - the latest a dam construction job in Kenya for the British Government finished this month.

The opening day of the Conference, with Tom C. Robbins, Director of the Mississippi Highway Department presiding, begins with the theme "Materials Engineering Applied to Highway Construction" and includes addresses by Raymond E. Dawson, University of Texas Professor of Engineering, on "Foundation Stabilization," Willard Turnbull, Chief of Soil Division, Waterways Experiment Station, Vicksburg, who speaks on "Stabilization of Materials by Compaction," and Walter E. Blessey, Professor of Bridge, Structural and Foundation Engineering at Tulane University, who has the topic "Prefabricated Concrete for Highway Bridges."

In the afternoon, laboratory demonstrations will be held by faculty of the University of Mississippi School of Engineering in soil mechanics, physical testing and geology. These sessions are scheduled for the newly-completed Carrier Engineering Building and will include a tour of these new facilities.

The evening session includes conference sessions with David B. King, Forester in Charge, Southern Forestry Experiment Station, Oxford, acting as moderator for the "Erosion" group. Dean Kellogg of the University of Mississippi School of Engineering moderates the "Soil Mechanics and Stabilization" section. Ben T. Collier, State Aid Engineer with the Mississippi Highway Department leads the "Prefabricated Concrete" discussion group. Sumner B. Glasco, President of the Mississippi Association of Super-

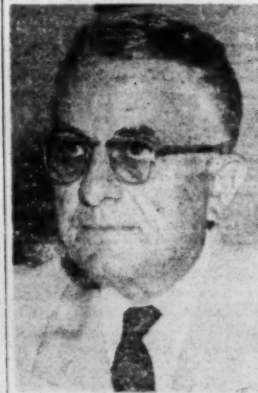

Dr. Karl Terzaghi, internationally recognized engineering consultant, speaks February 25 on "Functions of Engineering Geology."

Dr. Frederic H. Kellogg, Dean of the University of Mississippi School of Engineering, will act as campus host to the Conference.

Walter E. Blessey, Tulane University Professor of Bridge, Structural and Foundation Engineering, will discuss prefabricated concrete for use in highway bridges on February 24.

Tom C. Robbins, Director, Mississippi State Highway Department will act as Presiding Officer at the opening day of the Conference.

visors will chair the session on "Public Relations," and S. A. Tomlinson, State Highway Construction Engineer, heads the session on "Highway Geometrics."

Eugene M. Johnson, Chief Engineer of the Mississippi Highway Department will preside at the closing day of the Conference - February 25 in a program which will include a panel on highway economics - the road to best taxation practices, and a discussion of methods of financing highway construction by Dr. Kellogg. The program will also include a panel on highway economics - the road to best taxation practices, and a discussion of methods of financing highway construction by Dr. Kellogg.

panel moderator. Question and discussion periods are scheduled following each address at the Conference.

The entire two-day Conference will be held in the new Continuation Center on campus of the University of Mississippi, and bulletins have been mailed to highway engineers, county supervisors, materials and machinery suppliers, contractors, farm groups, transportation agencies, and others with interest in an expert appraisal of current highway problems - problems which have assumed national importance in recent months.

In announcing the Conference, Mississippi Highway Department Director Tom Robbins said that a cordial invitation is extended to general public to participate and that bulletins will be sent on request either to his Department or the University of Mississippi.

FRUIT CAKES AND GLAZES

Care of Fruit Cakes
Most fruit cakes keep well if given proper care. There are several methods of keeping them. One is to saturate a piece of clean cheesecloth with liquor, wrap it around the cake, then wrap in waxed paper and store in airtight container. This should be repeated about once a month. If this method is not used, the cakes should be wrapped in wax paper and stored in an airtight container with a whole orange or apple in the container. As the fruit loses its moisture and becomes shriveled, it should be replaced.

- Black Fruit Cake
3 cups sifted enriched flour
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. allspice
1/2 tsp. cloves
1 cup seedless raisins, washed and drained
2 cups seeded raisins, halved, washed and drained
3 eggs, beaten
1/4 lb. (1/2 cup) citron, finely chopped
1/4 cup grape juice
1/4 lb. (1/2 cup) candied orange peel, finely chopped
1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/4 lb. (1/2 cup) candied lemon peel, finely chopped
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 lb. figs, chopped
1 lb. pecans, coarsely chopped
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1 cup currants, washed and drained
1 1/2 tsp. vanilla extract
1/2 cup molasses
Combine and sift powder, baking soda, spices. Dredge fruit and nuts in cup of flour mixture. Cream butter or margarine; add sugar gradually. Cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, vanilla, molasses and grape juice; blend thoroughly. Add fruit and nuts. Fold in dry ingredients. Pour into 4 greased and waxed paper lined 7"x3"x2 1/2" loaf pans. Bake at 300° for 2-2 1/2 hours. YIELD: 4-1 1/2 lb. fruit cakes.

Decorated Unglazed Fruit Cakes
Fruit cakes may be decorated with glazed fruit, angelica, and nuts. Remove fruit cakes from oven 30 minutes before baking is completed. Apply decorations. They may be dipped in egg white, corn syrup or just touched with a little reserved cake batter to make them adhere. Return fruit cakes to oven for 30 minutes.

Brown Sugar Glaze
1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup water
2 tbsp. lemon juice
Combine sugar, syrup, and water. Cook over low heat; bring to boiling point and boil 2 minutes. Add lemon juice. Use while warm. YIELD: 1 cup glaze.

White Sugar Glaze
Substitute 1/2 cup granulated sugar for brown sugar and proceed as in brown sugar glaze. YIELD: 1 cup glaze.

Corn Syrup Glaze
Combine equal amounts of dark corn syrup and water. Simmer 4 minutes. Brush glaze over top of warm fruit cakes. Decorate with candied fruits and nuts. Brush additional glaze over decorations. Return to oven for 10 minutes.

Honey Glaze
Heat Honey. Brush over warm fruit cakes. Decorate with candied fruits and nuts. Brush again with warm honey.

Talisman, charm, and amulet were all worn by our ancestors in an effort to avoid the plague. W. B. Moore of the State Tax Office looks on as Southern Bell Representative E. K. Lumpkin tenders big tax check to State Tax Commissioner A. H. Stone.

Southern Bell Delivers One Of State's Largest Tax Payments

JACKSON—One of the largest tax-payment checks received by the state of Mississippi in payment of 1954 statewide privilege taxes was delivered to the office of State Tax Commissioner—A. H. Stone today by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The payment totaled $59,163.00 and was delivered to Mr. Stone by Southern Bell District Manager E. K. Lumpkin, of Jackson.

Southern Bell is one of Mississippi's largest tax-payers. Today's check represents a small part of an estimated $2,950,000.00 in taxes which Southern Bell will pay the State and its counties and municipalities for the year of 1954. That is exclusive of income, social security, and excise tax payments to the Federal Government which will probably add close to 6 million dollars to the total tax bill paid by Southern Bell in connection with its Mississippi operations.

"The telephone business is built on the spirit of service," Henry Grady Turner, Mississippi

General Manager for Southern Bell stated, "That's why we like to thin" of these tax payments in terms of human betterment: helping to educate the children of Mississippi; helping provide doctors and medicine for the sick and aged in our public institutions; to rehabilitate wayward boys and girls; to supply fire and police protection and provide better roads.

"In the broadest sense," Mr. Turner concluded, "these tax payments serve to strengthen the position we already occupy as partners in progress with all Mississippians because of our steady and consistent efforts to provide telephone service in keeping with the state's progress economically and agriculturally."

IT MEANS SO MUCH TO KEEP IN TOUCH

They are dedicated to service through the care of the sick...
prevention of disease... and the protection of
the public's health

Until this year, the young men and women of Mississippi who wanted medical careers, found it necessary to enter schools in other states to receive their last two years of medical training. Long waiting lists faced them... scholarship opportunities were limited... and many young doctors never returned to Mississippi to enter practice, leaving parts of the state in dire need of competent physicians.

Today this problem is well on the way to solution. With the opening of the University Medical Center in Jackson on July 1, Mississippi will have a complete medical school and teaching hospital. As soon as facilities are finished, the center will also include a school of nursing and schools for medical technicians, dietitians and medical record librarians.

Mississippi Power & Light Company feels that the founding of the University Medical Center is a great step forward for our state, and is proud to contribute to the center's development through tax support.

In 1954, a total of $6,374,358 or 23.3c of each dollar of revenue received by Mississippi Power & Light Company, was set aside to pay the Company's tax bill. Of this amount, $2,731,258 was for state, county and municipal taxes to be paid in Mississippi.

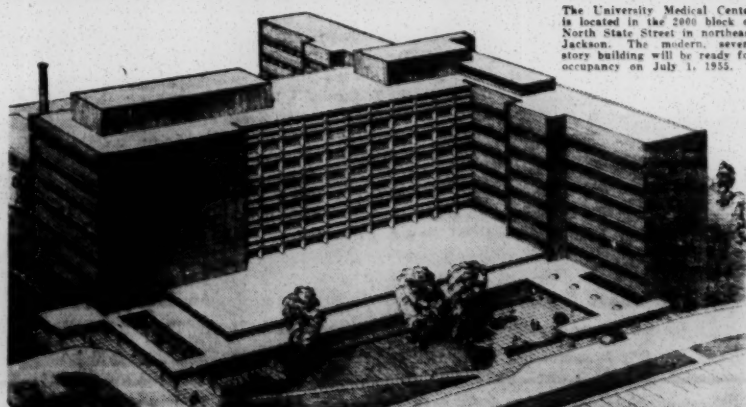

The modern, well-equipped University Medical Center was built at a cost of $9,000,000. Therefore, at the present ratio, the state, county and municipal taxes of Mississippi Power & Light Company could completely pay for this entire structure in less than four years.

Medical training must be exact and thorough, and is an expensive process. The average cost per student at the University Medical Center will be $10,000. Fees cover less than half of this amount, and the remainder must come from endowments and tax sources. The $2,731,258 that Mississippi Power & Light Company set aside in 1954 for state, county and municipal taxes could finance the education of the entire graduating class for eleven years.

As a tax-paying citizen, Mississippi Power & Light Company proudly salutes Mississippi's newest institution dedicated to the service of humanity.

"Mississippi's Growth is a Challenge"

Mississippi is growing fast in all ways, economically, industrially and agriculturally. This growth has brought an unprecedented demand for telephone service which has been a challenge to Southern Bell.

We have met this challenge with more telephone growth in the past 8 years than during the first 64 years in Mississippi. We have filled 96 percent of all the applications for new telephones received since January 1, 1946 - more than doubling the total number of customers in the state and more than quadrupling our rural telephone subscribers.

Since 1945, this expansion has cost over 82 million dollars of investment money. To provide further needed expansion, we must secure still more money from investors. To get people to furnish this money we must make a fair profit on money invested in telephone property.

Final tests being made on a new long distance switchboard. This is one of a type which has helped reduce the average speed of completing long-distance calls in Mississippi from 353 seconds in 1945 to 140 seconds today.

TELEPHONES IN MISSISSIPPI
1945	RURAL 8,335
NOW	42,700
1945	TOTAL 115,876
